THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

“We spend roughly a third of our life in bed. In hotel time, however, it’s more like half of our lives, making the bed arguably the most important element in the room.”

While luxury hotels flog services and amenities, it’s really the bed that most travelers are focused on.”

Lauren Lipton, “Secrets of the World’s Best Hotels”

“One of the first questions we always receive from our guests staying at The Lodges at Boot Ranch is: ‘We absolutely LOVE the bedding...where can we get it?’ We are proud to provide the highest quality for our guests and the Jennifer Adams collection is the perfect match to complement our lodges. It adds that ‘extra special touch’ in creating an amazing experience and a place to kick your boots off.”
